

Dear Digital Pacific Support

I am having a bit of difficulty with a adversary who publishes vindictive and defamatory "stuff" about me, my businesses and family on the internet.

see <http://floristcollective.report/>

I am wondering if you could nip this issue in the bud for me. I am getting the run around by your client as he jumping Hosting Providers here in Australia.

I have attache supporting court documents that

I think you will agree requires his material to be removed.

So far he has hosted these sites on Netorign (they suspended him), Panthur, no response but he move his host to Digital Pacific. I assume because they told him they were "going" to suspend his account.

The offending sites are:

<https://accr.report/>

<http://consumerprotection.report/>

<http://floristcollective.report/>

<http://readyflowers.report/>

<http://zflowers.review/>

I think we have a social responsibility to do what we can to not allow internet bullying and propagation of vindictive behaviour on servers we control. Under your terms and conditions found at

<https://www.digitalpacific.com.au/about/agreements/terms-of-service/>

<<https://www.google.com/url?q=https://www.digitalpacific.com.au/about/agreements/terms-of-service/>

&sa=D&ust=1517301501647000&usg=AFQjCNExoYSzggQosEsly4vJxZgBvwQsMA>

I

think there are 2 clauses you can rely on:

*6.3.1 Acceptable Usage – The Customer must ensure at all times they comply with Digital Pacific's Acceptable Usage Policy(AUP) and must not host any content or allow any account activity that breaches the AUP.

Breaches to the AUP are governed by the following conditions: ...*

*[I believe due to the provided court order the 3 strike rule should be waived and immediate suspension implemented. It is not as if your client does not "know" what he is doing.]8.5 Indemnification – The customer agrees to indemnify Digital Pacific from any and all demands, liabilities, losses, costs and claims, including reasonable legal fees asserted against Digital Pacific, that may arise or result from the use of any hosting service provided.

[As I understand this clause, you can suspend his account without warning with no impact on Digital Pacific if you believe he is acting in bad faith or illegally]

As time is of an essence , could you please review and let me know your decision as I believe he is trying to damage our businesses leading up to Valentine Day. He has a history of becoming active at this time of the year.

I would like a response by close of business tomorrow 30Jan2018.

SEE supporting documents and email traces of previous Hosting providers.

1. "20160324_16 03 24 Order (sealed) – RFPL and PRH Injunction .pdf"
2. "QDC16-091-Court Proceedings with judgement background info.pdf"

Thank you.

Peter Hegarty

phegarty@heg2.com